REVEREND KNOX IS FOUND DEAD

Lifeless Body Discovered in Bed, Sunday Morning
WAS FORMER LIMA PASTOR

Friends, Relatives Here, Madison Congregation, Grief Stricken

Rev. Thomas Knox, 60, former pastor of the Market Street Presbyterian church, was found dead in his bed Sunday morning at his home in Madison, Wis.

Organic heart trouble is believed to have been the cause of his death.

His death came as a great shock for he had appeared to be in the best of health according to word received by his daughter, Mrs. Seward Polson, 340 W. Market-st.

Rev. Knox was born near Belfast, Ireland, of Scotch-Irish parents, Thomas and Mary (Wallace) Knox. He came to this country with his parents and settled in New Jersey.

He held this pastorate for 10 years when he came to the pastorate of the Market-st. Presbyterian church, one of the strongest organizations in Northwestern Ohio.

He remained pastor of the Lima church from 1912 to 1919, when he resigned because of ill health. During his incumbency as pastor he proved a vigorous factor in the moral and social movements of the city.

He accepted the call to become pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, the college church in Madison, Wis., two years ago. He was well liked by students of the University of Wisconsin, many of whom attended his services.

He is survived by one son, John Marshall Knox, a graduate of Kenyon College, Gambier, O., and of Lima Central high school, and one daughter, Miss Seward Polson, living here. He is also survived by seven brothers living in the state of New Jersey, where his family first settled.

Funeral services will be held in Chicago in the suburb of Oak Ellen, where his wife, Elizabeth Marshall Knox, is buried. Date of the service has not been set, but will probably be held at the home of Mr. J. Lindsey, 525 Hill-st., his former wife's sister.

ENGINEER DIES IN HOTEL FIRE

Hostelry at Magnetic Springs Destroyed by Flames

50 HAVE NARROW ESCAPES

Many Guests Flee in Night Clothes—Loss $100,000

DELAWARE, Ohio — (United Press) — An investigation was under way to determine the cause of the blaze which early Sunday morning burned one man to death and destroyed the $100,000 Park Hotel at Magnetic Springs.

Authorities believed the fire started in the laundry, where A. M. Potter, 60, night engineer at the hotel, was trapped and burned to death. Potter was sleeping in the laundry on an improvised cot and authorities pointed out he might have spilled pipe ashes in the bed clothing.

Fifty guests of the hotel, many of whom fled in their night clothes, when Mrs. Clara Dwyer, head waitress, gave the fire alarm, were housed in nearby hotels. Many of them lost their wardrobes.

Robbery story doubted. Authorities attached little importance to a theory that Potter might have been attacked by robbers and the blaze started by overturning an oil lamp during the fight.

Friends reported Potter had displayed $1,000 in currency Saturday night.

Christopher Magee, Jr., owner of the Park, said the loss was partly covered by insurance and that the hotel will be rebuilt.

TRIAL OF 200 MEN IS BEGUN

Result of Mine Riot in West Virginia

WELLSBURG, W. Va. — (United Press) — Trial of 200 men charged with murder and inciting a riot at Cliftonville July 17, when Sheriff H. H. Duval and seven union miners were slain, began in Brooke county court today.

Many of the indicted men will ask for separate trials, according to John D. Gardner, Steubenville, counsel for the United Mine Workers of America. This, Gardner said, will make the trials last over a period of several weeks.

It was intimated today that the miners probably will ask a change of venue, which will be strenuously opposed by Prosecutor W. S. Wilkin of Brooke county.

Out of the 216 indictments in connection with the massacre, all except 50 of the defendants are held in Brooke and Ohio county jails.

PROPERTY FIRED. Seventy-eight men are held without bond for first degree murder. The indictments resulted from a riot when a small force of deputies, headed by Sheriff Duval, were attacked by hundreds of miners, who were said to have marched down from a Pennsylvania mining camp.

The attacking party set fire to mining property, shot Duval thru the head and killed seven mine workers.

It was learned today that several of the indicted men have turned state's evidence and have confessed to the march and mine attack in every detail.

JAMAICA GINGER KILLS MAN

John S. Hart Dies After Drinking for Two Hours

Jamaica ginger added death to his toll, when John S. Hart, 31, 653 N. Jackson-st., was found dead Sunday night at the rear of 327 N. Jackson-st.

According to the story told by Henry Lump, companion of Hart, the two bought six bottles of Jamaica ginger from Fred King, N. Central-av. and Beer Crist, 345 1-2 E. Wayne-st. They drank four bottles he told police, and after two hours of drinking, Hart became violently ill. His companion laid him on a cot and summoned Coroner Adams.

When the coroner arrived, Hart was dead. Death was caused by strangulation, in the opinion of the coroner, although no verdict has been given.

No arrests have been made in the case of King and Crist, according to Chief Lanker as Jamaica ginger is not classed as illicit liquor. It would be difficult to prove a violation of any statute.

Hart is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hart, 658 N. Jackson-st., one brother, Charles Hart of Lima, and two sisters, Mrs. James Becker of Lima and Mrs. Carrie Court of Fostoria.

No funeral arrangements have been made although burial will be at Deaverdam, where he was born.

BRITISH PREMIER THREATENED

Overthrow of Lloyd George Government Forecast

LONDON, (Associated Press) — Possibility of the overthrow of the Lloyd George government next month when Parliament convenes was discussed today by opponents of the prime minister.

Liberal and conservative of anti-Georgians saw an advantage in recent attacks on the premier because of his Near Eastern policy.

The attack in the press is led by J. L. Garvin, writer for the Observer, whose opinion carries great weight as a critic of the government.

The Observer, and many other papers, some of them that have long been friendly to Lloyd George, are clamoring for a change in government following the militant attitude the cabinet has taken in dealing with the Kemalists in the Near East.

The possibility that a convention of the Unionist party which might finally submerge the coalition government, was also under discussion.

Well-informed and responsible persons however, believe Lloyd George will be able to weather the stormiest period of his long career if the Near Eastern crisis is dissipated.

AWARDED MEDAL ASHTABULA, O. — Rev. W. H. Stark, rector of Trinity Reformed Episcopal Church, has received a silver medal from the British government, for his part in Y. M. C. A. work in England during the war.

BOY, 19, ACCUSED AS SLAYER

Charged With Killing Rector, Singer by Chum

LATTER TAKEN AS WITNESS

Slaying is Declared Result of Mistaken Identity

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — (Associated Press) — Clifford Hayes, 19-year-old admirer of Pearl Banner, who found the bodies of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, choir singer, was arrested today and formally charged with first degree murder for the slayings.

Raymond Schneider, who was with the Banner girl when the bodies were found, was held as a material witness. Prosecutors Beckman and Stricker of Middlesex and Somerset-county, say Schneider signed a 300 word statement accusing Hayes of the crime.

According to Schneider's statement the double slaying was the result of mistaken identity. He had gone out with Hayes on the night of the murders, he said, trailing a man who had accompanied the Banner girl. Seeing a couple beneath a crab apple tree, he said, Hayes once fired.

Prosecutors' statement. Formal announcement of the arrests was made at 11:45 by Prosecutor Stricker.

The announcement, issued jointly by Prosecutor Stricker of Middlesex-county, and Beckman of Somerset-county, read:

"Upon information in the prosecutor's office obtained from Raymond Schneider and other witnesses, we feel obliged under the circumstances to prefer a charge of murder against one Clifford Hayes. Raymond Schneider will be held as a material witness, awaiting further developments in the case."

"Process will be issued out of Somerset-county, where it appears the crime was committed. Consequently, the prisoners will be detained in the Somerset-county jail."

The prosecutors would not say whether the arrest of Hayes had eliminated the Hall and Mills families from further consideration. No further arrests are contemplated for the present, they said.

Hayes, when confronted with Schneider as the latter re-told his story, exclaimed: "He is a liar."

According to Schneider, who admits he is in love with the Banner girl, he was standing on a street corner when Hayes and Leo Kauffmann saw the girl pass with her step-father, Nicholas Bader. He was jealous of the step-father, he said, and when he told the others of his suspicions they agreed to follow the pair.

They searched first thru Buena Vista park where Kauffmann left them. Schneider and Hayes then proceeded to the nearby Phillips farm. About 11 o'clock, Schneider said, they approached the crab apple tree under which the bodies of Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills lay. They were found and Hayes pointed to the two figures beneath the tree, exclaiming:

"There they are. Now we'll fix them."

Hayes, Schneider declared, whipped out a pistol and began to shoot.

When the pair collapsed, Schneider said, he went forward, struck a match and turned to Hayes, exclaiming:

"Great God, man, you've made a mistake."

The two then fled, according to the statement.

Schneider declared he did not know how the throat of Mrs. Mills was cut or who had laid the bodies out under the tree, carefully adjusting their clothing after they had been slain.

He declared that neither he nor his companion had touched the bodies and they saw nothing of the love letters written by Mrs. Mills, which were found scattered about the scene.

Detectives continued vigorously to work on the case, clearly indicating that they did not believe the double slaying had been wholly cleared up by Schneider's statement.

When word of the arrest was taken to the home of Mrs. Frances Hall, widow of the slain clergyman, who has been repeatedly questioned about the case, Miss Sally Peters, her most intimate friend and adviser, said:

"Isn't that fine! What has Mr. Stricker got to say for himself now for the way he has been treating Frances and Willie?" (Willie Stevens, eccentric brother of Mrs. Hall.)

MILLS MORE BITTER James Mills, husband of the slain woman, was more bitter when told of the arrest.

"A mistake!" cried Mills. "My God, what a mistake! Now I will have to stand for the funeral expenses."

BILL HART WINNING HIS FIGHT AGAINST TYPHOID

LOS ANGELES — Continued improvement in the condition of William (Bill) Hart, film star, who has been critically ill with typhoid fever and complications, was announced today.

Hart's strong constitution and remarkable vitality have played an important role in his fight against death and unless new complications develop there is little further danger, his physician said.

The children, Evelyn, Grace and Russell, 6 months, were allowed in a bath tub at their home by the father, William E. Wheeler, who then fired a bullet into his brain.

The children were found clumped to each other arms on the bottom of the tub which was filled with water. The father hung over the edge of the tub, still clutching the pistol from which he fired the fatal shot.

U.S. TO RAISE NEAR EAST AID FUND

Harding Names Committee to Take Charge of Work

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Creation of a Near East emergency fund with an appeal for nationwide contribution to relieve distress among the thousands of refugees in the Near East thru the joint ministrations of the American Red Cross and the Near East relief fund has been authorized by President Harding.

A special committee to raise the fund, headed by former Postmaster General Hays, was announced by the president following a conference between Mr. Hays and officials of the two organizations at the White House, at which it was agreed they would co-operate in the relief work.

Officials of various other organizations interested in relief activities in the Near East are included in the committee.

A special appeal for funds, the president's announcement said, would be made during the roll call of the American Red Cross in November.

MRS. HARDING'S LIFE SAVED THRU PRAYER. SENATOR SMOOT SAYS

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, (Associated Press) — Reed Smoot, United States senator, a member of the quorum of the twelve apostles of the Mormon church, told the ninety-third general conference of members of that faith yesterday that God heard and answered the prayers of the people for Mrs. Harding during her recent illness.

Senator Smoot told of visiting the White House four weeks ago when Mrs. Harding's condition was regarded as critical.

"I told the president," said the senator, "that from home tonight my earnest prayers would go up for Mrs. Harding's recovery. Millions were praying for her and shortly before midnight word came from the physicians at the hospital that the tide had turned and the proposed operation would not be necessary. God had heard and answered the prayers of the people."

WILL REACH CITY IN ANOTHER DAY

Invasive Forbidden Area Despite Promise to Halt

KEMAL WARNED BY BRITISH

Situation Again Darkens While Chiefs Resume Parley

AMUDARIA — (United Press) — Kemalists' legions were within a day's march of Constantinople, as allied generals met with Ismet Pasha in a renewed effort to untangle the Near Eastern problem today.

In spite of the promise of Ismet, Turkish nationalist representatives, to cease the concentration of troops in the neutral zone, the Kemalists surged into the forbidden area.

Turkish cavalry have reached Sile and Yumuktepe, both places within the neutral zone within the Bosporus, at the sight of the Sea of Marmara. Various is within a day's march of Constantinople. The cavalry is also nearing Karyakale, which is in the same area.

The concentration in the neutral zone on the west of the Sea of Marmara, in the vicinity of Chankaya, also continuing. In this area, infantry have replaced cavalry which is taken to mean that the Turks intend to dig in to hold their positions.

PEACE PLAN PRESENTED. The latest allied plan of peace, which includes the immediate withdrawal of the Greeks from Thrace and the occupation of that territory by the allies for a period of one month, after which a Turkish civil administration may be set up, was presented to Ismet by the military authorities of Great Britain, France and Italy.

The situation was somewhat reduced when the Greek cabinet instructed the Greek representative to inform the allies that the government would order its nationals out of Thrace. The Greeks, however, ask for two months, instead of one, to evacuate.

TURKS WARNED BY BRITISH CHIEF. LONDON — (Associated Press) — The British cabinet met today to consider a detailed report of Marquis Curzon, foreign secretary, on the conference in Paris with Premier Poincare at which the position of the allies on the Turkish question was again consolidated.

The cabinet conference is being resumed under the new instructions framed at the Paris meeting, which were approved with slight changes by the cabinet Saturday night and forwarded to Brigadier General Harington, delegates were instructed to insist upon fixation of the number of Turkish gendarmes to be allowed in Thrace, withdrawal of all Turkish troops from the neutral zone, and delay in the occupation of Thrace by the Turkish army until after the signing of a peace treaty.

Meanwhile the situation created by the Turkish invasion of the island neutral zone, which is disquieting, reports from two sources say, an official division, entered the neutral zone. General Harington is reported to have warned Ismet Pasha that unless the Kemalists withdrew he may be obliged to make a military demonstration on the Turkish flank. The Kemalists representative is said to have promised that the advance shall cease and that the incident will not be repeated.

As a measure of protection for Constantinople, General Harington ordered suspension of ferry service across the Bosporus and the sea of Marmara. There are said to be 12,500 Christians now in the island zone outside the British lines, while many thousands more are within the lines.

The Turkish sultan, Mohammed VI is still on the throne, despite the report of his abdication received by the Russian trade delegation here Saturday. Efforts are now under way to bring about a reconciliation between Mohammed VI and the victorious Nationalists and an emissary is being sent from Constantinople to inform the Ankara government that the sultan is prepared to recognize the legitimacy of the national assembly.

GREEKS WILL NOT GIVE UP THRACE. ADRIANOPLE — (Associated Press) — General Anastasios Leonadopoulos, new Greek commander in eastern Thrace, was greeted by the populace and soldiers as the "Liberator of Adrianople" upon his arrival here yesterday. The title "Liberator" arises from the fact that he was the first Greek to enter Adrianople after the Bulgarians and Turks were driven from the city in 1918.

He now has returned in the midst of the extensive preparations being made to resist the Turkish reoccupation.

At this moment it is evident that the army has little intention of evacuating Thrace without a struggle, whatever the orders from Athens may be and there is no doubt that many of the officers are looking back for inspiration to the examples of Gliborich D'Anoufo at Fiume and General Zeligowski at Vilna. Events march swiftly in an atmosphere of turmoil such as exists throughout Greece today and anything is possible.

In an interview with The Associated Press, a Greek official known as "Friends of the People,"

J. C. McDOWELL AGAIN FACES FRAUD CHARGES

TOLDO — For the third time within a year, Joseph C. McDowell, Pittsburgh oil man, was placed on trial in federal court here today on the charge of using the mails to defraud. The indictment charges him with having defrauded H. L. Doherty and Company and the Cities Service Company of more than a million and a half dollars while in their employ, by the acceptance of secret commissions on oil land purchases which he engineered for his employers.

During the two previous trials, one of which was interrupted by the death of a juror, while the other ended in a jury disagreement, Frank W. Pruehoff, Doherty's sole partner, was one of the principal witnesses against the defendant who has maintained that some member of the firm always knew of commissions which he received. Pruehoff died recently.

The second trial last spring lasted eight weeks. It is hoped by Federal Judge Kilbitt that the present trial will not take more than four weeks.

Burglaries Declared Amateurish by Lima Police

Ransacking of the Hobart Mumaugh residence at 1017, Rice-av., Sunday brought the number of house robberies in Lima since Saturday to three.

When Mr. and Mrs. Mumaugh returned late Sunday evening they found front and basement doors open and $125 lavellier gone from a jewelry box. Report was made to police, but no clues unearthed.

Mumaugh believes in some way a conversation over the telephone between himself and another party was overheard and taken advantage of. Considerable money was involved in the theft, and Mumaugh says the thief may have gotten the idea that he could make a rich money haul.

The job is declared amateurish by police, who say a diamond brooch, watch, several scarf pins, an alarm clock and a dollar were stolen while almost $2,000 worth of rings, watches and other jewelry in close proximity to the other valuables, was either overlooked or the thieves, or they were frightened away before they could make a more complete haul.

The Bob Shaw home at 119 S. Pierce-st. was looted Saturday night, $15 in cash being taken.

IMMIGRATION LAWS ARE DISCUSSED BEFORE ROTARY

More right inspection of foreigners coming into the United States was advocated by Congressman John L. Cable, speaking before the Lima Rotary club Monday noon at the Hotel Norval.

Henry Garner, distributor of the Gramm-Bernstein trucks in Great Britain and a boss solvent of note, sang several numbers for the club prior to the talk by Cable.

By far the largest attendance for several weeks was seen. There were a large number of guests at the luncheon.

Mrs. G. W. Goodering Reports Poisoning; Mayor Acts

Investigation of the reported poisoning of Mrs. G. W. Goodering and daughter, Maudie, 1269 Bellefontaine-av. by eating tainted meats was promised by the city health department Monday.

Mrs. Goodering purchased a piece of meat in a local grocery Friday night and immediately cooked it, she declared. When they ate it Saturday noon both she and her daughter were violently affected and suffered all the symptoms of poisonous poisoning, city officials were told.

While Mayor Harold Crenshaw was of the opinion that improper care of the meat following the cooking may have caused the illness, he promised to take the matter before the health board at once and have a thorough investigation made.

FUR ROBBERY CLUE IS DISCOUNTED

Coat Check by Reeder Sent Here for Identification

Identification of a fur coat checked in a Cleveland hotel by Thomas Reeder, suspected of having been implicated in a $10,000 robbery at the Feldman store here, failed according to police Monday.

Cleveland police sent the coat here, declaring suspicions were aroused because of the fact that Reeder's home is only five blocks from the hotel. All markings were removed from the coat, a seal skin, valued at $125. Local police say there are indications that the original lining was removed and another sewn in.

Chief of Police Lanker ordered the coat sent back to Cleveland Monday. He has not given up hope, however, that the Feldman job here six weeks ago will soon be cleared up.

The only tangible result of the investigation so far was the detention of Reeder, an alleged fur dealer, at city jail several days. He was released early last week.

Police believe an expose of large proportions will transpire when those guilty of the Feldman job are apprehended. A $17,000 fur robbery in Ft. Wayne last week may be included. Chief Lanker says $1,000,000 worth of fur has been stolen in this part of the country recently.

U. S. PLANS NEW BOND ISSUE

Flotation of $550,000,000 Announced by Mellon

PART OF REFUND PROGRAM

Step Taken to Meet Government Obligations

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — As the first step in a program of refunding of government obligations maturing within a few months, the treasury department today is preparing to float a bond issue of $550,000,000 in 4-4-4 per cent securities.

The issuance of these bonds was announced by Secretary of the treasury Mellon, who, in a letter to bankers commenting on the new issue, said it was a refunding issue, which will afford a "particularly favorable opportunity" to holders of 4-4-4 per cent Victory notes to acquire a long term government bond at attractive terms in place of Victory notes which will mature or be redeemed within the next few months.

The new bonds will bear date of October 15, and will mature in 1932, the government reserving the privilege to redeem them in 1917, when the last of the war loans mature.

In announcing the new issue, Mellon informed bankers concerning steps already inaugurated to take care of the several billions of short term debt incurred during the late months of the war and the first portion of the post-war period.

"You will be interested in this connection to know," said Mellon, "that we have already been accomplishing the refunding of the short dated debt, and what still remains to be done. On April 20, 1921, when the treasury first announced its refunding program gross public debt amounted to about $24,000,000,000, of which over $7,500,000,000 was maturing within about twenty years. On September 10, 1922, the total gross debt stood at about $22,500,000,000 and of the early maturing debt about $4,000,000,000 already had been retired or refunded, chiefly in short term treasury notes, with maturities spread over the four class years.

"There will fall due this fiscal year about $1,100,000,000 of treasury certificates of indebtedness, about $25,000,000 maturity value of war savings certificates of the series 1913 and about $1,800,000,000 of Victory notes. The retirement of these certificates will leave only for certificates outstanding and to be sold in an event continuing to be desirable with income and profits for payments as large as they are of the treasury to have outstanding at least $1,000,000,000 of tax certificates in amounts and with maturities conforming to the quarterly tax payments.

MATURITIES
After October 15, 1922, the next maturities fall on December 15, and include about $75,000,000 face amount of 4-4-4 per cent Victory notes called for redemption, and about $120,000,000 of maturing tax certificates, against which the treasury will receive in December about $200,000,000 on income and profits taxes.

"On January 1, 1923, the $225,000,000 of war savings certificates become payable. The treasury will shortly announce such facilities for the exchange of maturing war savings certificates for the new treasury saving certificates and plans in this manner to provide for substantial part of the war savings maturing. The only treasury certificates maturing in the second half of the fiscal year 1923 are about $260,000,000 on March 15, 1923, and about $273,000,000 on June 15, 1923, both of which are covered by the income and profits tax payments estimated for those dates. On May 20, 1923, the remaining $930,000,000 of 4-4-4 per cent Victory notes will mature, according to their terms.

"The maturities which remain and have to be refunded the treasury will meet thru issues of refunding securities, properly adjusted to market conditions."

MEAT INDUSTRY ON SOLID BASIS

Report on Business Given at Packers' Convention

CHICAGO — (United Press) — The American meat packing industry is in a better position today, despite present problems, than has been the case for many years. Thomas E. Wilson, president of the Institute of American Packers, declared before the packers' annual convention here today.

Wilson said that the packing industry was the largest single industry in the country, if not in the world.

"The levels of meat values have become practically stable," Wilson said. "Here and there fluctuations may be out of line but on the whole there seems a little tendency of having the entire level of meat values shift suddenly and precariously."

"I do not mean that values are what they should be, but I do mean that we have passed the last reported sales created radically changed values."

"Probably no packing company will hail 1922 as a banner year, but values have become dependable."

"Values have not been stabilized by cutting down production. The packers have furnished a spot cash market for all meat animals shipped by the farmer for slaughter. The packers up to this time have done a volume of business fully normal."

Wilson commenting on the foreign trade situation, said:

"In the calendar year 1919 meat products exported weighed 3,242,602,537 pounds and were valued at $855,011,320, according to the United States department of commerce; exports of meat in the last calendar year weighed 1,345,640,210 pounds and were valued at $278,070,366. The average value per pound had dropped from 30.38 cents to 14.75 cents."

CAMPBELL FINED $100 FOR POSSESSING LIQUOR

Lewis Campbell, 33, laborer, arrested on N. Central-av Saturday night was fined $100 for possession of liquor when he pleaded guilty before Judge Emmett J. Jackson, in criminal court Monday.

Police suspect Campbell of having been the source of supply for several of a group of men arraigned on charges of intoxication.

Fines of $15 each were imposed by the court in the cases of Harry McCauley, 30; Alex Auld, 33; Harry Davis, 29; Herb Herring, 54; W. B. Sampson, 35; R. Brown, 29; Ernest Pugh, workmen who pleaded guilty to drunk charges.

Several of the fines were paid by employers. The remainder of the prisoners will be kept in jail.

DELPHOS LIQUOR CASES SET HERE FOR TUESDAY

The cases for trial Tuesday are those of Ralph Slant, selling; Mary Van Archer, selling; R. Staup, opiate; Herbert Foust, manufacturing and possession; and O. Morgan, selling.

CHILDREN'S POET IS HONORED

Monument to Eugene Field Unveiled at Chicago

$10,000 PAID BY KIDDIES

Remainder of Cost Donated by Ferguson Fund

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — A monument to Eugene Field, the "children's poet," was unveiled in Lincoln Park this afternoon, commemorating, by its erection, the interest of the children of Chicago in the author of "Little Boy Blue," "Wynken, Blynken and Nod" and the rest of his series of lullabies.

The children, thru newspaper funds, raised nearly $10,000 toward the cost of the memorial, the remainder being donated by the Ferguson Fund, a trust founded by its donor for the erection of statues in the city's public parks.

Two small grandchildren of the poet, Jean Field Foster and Robert Field, pulled the cords which unveiled the monument.

Melville E. Stone, counselor and former general manager of the Associated Press, delivered the principal address. Mr. Stone, while associated with Mr. Victor Lawson in the publication of the Chicago Daily News, brought the poet to Chicago from Denver in 1883, and he remained with the News until his death in 1896.

BROODING ANGEL
The memorial shows a brooding angel hovering over two sleeping children and dropping the sand of dreams into their eyes. Beneath, on one side are carved the opening lines of the poet's "Dutch Lullaby":

Wynken, Blynken and Nod one night,
Sailed off in a wooden shoe—
Sailed on a river of crystal light
Into a sea of dew.

Opposite are four lines from the "Sugar Plum Tree":

Have you ever heard of the Sugar Plum Tree?
'Tis a marvel of great renown,
It blooms on the shore of the lollipop sea
In the garden of Shut Eye Town.

A fountain, marble benches and the plain inscription "To Eugene Field," complete the memorial. It was designed by Edward McCarton, of New York City. Slason Thompson, a newspaper friend of Mr. Field's Chicago days, presided. Besides Mr. Stone, the Rev. William B. Harton also spoke, and Mrs. Louise Harrison Slade sang the "Dutch Lullaby."

Eugene Field was born at St. Louis in 1850, either on September 2 or September 3. The Field family genealogy gives the latter date as the correct one, tho the poet for most of his life observed the former as his birth date.

PHYSIOLOGY GIVES WAY TO HEALTH EDUCATION IN ALLEN-CO SCHOOLS

Allen-co is now reaping the benefits of hygienic teaching in schools.

Educator in health matters is the main reason assigned by the district health commissioner, Dr. J. J. Sutter, for the present unprecedented condition of the county.

One mild case of scarlet fever and a single attack of diphtheria comprise, communicable disease reported at his office, according to Sutter.

"It is a vastly better condition than formerly prevailed. Teaching children how to avoid disease and take care of themselves when they are sick has been proven to be better than instructing them in physiology. The naming of bones is far less important than knowledge of what are contained in sunlight and pure air," the physician declared.

SATERTHWAIT TO BE BURIED HERE

Former Lima Jeweler Dies at Los Angeles Home

Isaac W. Satterthwait, 52, one of Lima's earliest jewelers, died Thursday at his home in Los Angeles, Calif., according to word received here Monday by Mrs. W. L. Mackenzie, W. Market-st.

His death was attributed to general debility coming on with his advanced age.

Satterthwait, for a long time, was in business in this city. In 1900 he moved with his family to Los Angeles to live a retired life.

He was born in Columbiana-co., O., March 14, 1829, where he learned the jewelry business when quite young. In 1850 he opened a jewelry store in Lima which he conducted successfully until he retired in 1882.

Five years after entering business in this city, he married Martha M. McHenry, one of the first physicians in Allen-co.

Satterthwait is survived by an only child, Cora Woods, widow of James H. Woods; a grandson, Robert S. Woods; and a niece, Miss Adelia Satterthwait, E. Spring-st, Lima. The daughter and grandson reside in Los Angeles.

The body will be accompanied to this city by Mrs. Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Woods for burial.

Funeral services will be held next Monday afternoon at the Woodlawn cemetery chapel. Services will be conducted by Rev. Samuel Hucker of the Market Street Presbyterian church.

LOAFERS WARNED BY LANKER

Brands Them Lookouts for Illicit Liquor Joints

VAGRANCY WILL BE CHARGED

Jackson Promises Heavy Penalties for Those Arrested

Chief Thomas A. Lanker is planning to end the practice of jobless men hanging around certain soft drink saloons in the city.

Habitual loafers about the places are to be picked up by officers in the future on a charge of vagrancy, he announced. Severe sentences will be imposed on all who cannot give an account of themselves, was the warning.

Lanker asserts that hangers-on about drinking places are acting as lookouts. Because of their presence he claims, it is next to impossible to suppress liquor sales.

GIVE WARNING
Evidence may be obtained by "stool pigeons" and detectives, but when a uniformed officer sticks his broom within a half block of the place, the grape-vine radio that the "bulls are coming" goes out, Lanker explains.

If there is any liquor in the place it is disposed of before an officer can get inside the door, he added.

The first two arrests under the chief's vag order were made Sunday night when two men who gave their names as C. E. Sutton, 60, and C. Voorhees, 64, were booked.

Judge Emmett J. Jackson released the two on condition that they stay away from a soft drink saloon on N. Central. Suspended sentences of $50 and 30 days will be imposed, Jackson told them, if they break their promise.

LIQUOR CASES WILL BE SENT TO FEDERAL COURT

Charles Ladden, proprietor of a soft drink saloon at 451 N. Main-st, and "Doc" O'Boyle, 33, bartender, who were arrested by police Saturday night on a charge of selling whiskey, will be turned over to federal authorities, Police Chief Lanker declared Monday.

The two men are out on $1,000 bond each signed by Ladden. They will be arraigned before United States Commissioner C. W. Long, as soon as possible. Long was not in the city Monday.

Joseph Coughlin, 32, laborer, 927 N. McDonald-st, an alleged customer, who was arrested for attempting to interfere with the arrest of Ladden and O'Boyle, was fined $5 for resisting an officer by Judge Emmett J. Jackson, Monday.

IRREGULAR SIGNATURES ON PETITION TO COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD QUIZZED

A petition from the voters of Monroe school district asking that 12 square miles of its territory be transferred to the Columbus Grove district, presented Saturday at a meeting of the Allen-co board of education, may be transferred back to them for proper signing.

County Superintendent C. A. Arganbright said Monday that such an order will be issued in event the irregular signatures reduce the number below the required majority.

Irregularity consists of a husband's and wife's name in the same handwriting, the man evidently having done the signing for his spouse, or vice versa. Board members raised the question of legality.

Arganbright will determine the number of signatures needed. It is not known at present whether the elimination of irregular signatures would make the petition useless.

Transfer of the territory affects three schools and will form an important part of a school district which may later be centralized.

SUTTER GETS AID

Funds From State Averts Closing of Health Work

Receipts of $1,000 state aid by the Allen-co health district for the first six months of 1922 has precluded the possibility that health work will be checked, according to Dr. J. J. Sutter, commissioner.

The due at the end of July, the money has just been received. The other half of the state's $2,000 aid for the Allen-co district is due at the end of 1922.

Better provision for state aid to Ohio counties must be made at the next session of the legislature, Sutter says. The total appropriation of $150,000 for this year was found insufficient for the 88 county and 115 city districts and allotments in full were made only where the direct necessity existed.

The law governing the matter provides that one half the salary of the health commissioner, his clerk and the county health nurse must be supplied by state funds.

BACK TO NORMAL AGAIN

WITH the big sporting event of the year over, we may return to business with only the approaching election the distracting factor for the remaining days of the year. The Giants are world champions of baseball again, having upset all dope in taking four straight from the powerful Yankees who were touted to have an easy walk-over in the big classic.

The World Series always disrupts our routine. That because we are a sport-loving people and are immediately attracted to major contests in sport. And the World Series is about the biggest possible, being played by champions of the most perfect organizations of our national game.

And why shouldn't we "knock off" at least partially, for a little relaxation occasionally? The ability of the American to work like the demon then relax for his sport and then go after his work with twice the pep because of his play day, to a great extent, accounts for the enviable position our nation holds in world affairs. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." The American keeps from becoming dull by mixing enough play with his work. It should be encouraged. But be careful and don't play too much, believing that more play than work is necessary.

WAR MUST BE PAID FOR

IN France it now costs 382 francs to buy, on the average, the same commodities that sold for 199 francs before the war.

With cost of living nearly four times as high as it used to be normally, as a penalty of war, it is hard to understand how any Frenchman can be militaristic. Another big war would double the burden.

The road to lasting peace is to make all people in all countries realize that war must be paid for to the last penny. Dodging is impossible.

THE FATE OF GAMBLERS

IN September 21,775,938 shares of stock changed hands on the New York Stock Exchange. This was exceeded in September of only three previous years, 1919, 1916 and 1906. The stock exchange is nearly twice as active as a year ago.

Nine-tenths of the boys who are playing the present bull market will lose out, because they will not be wise enough to quit before the tide turns. A stock gambler is rarely satisfied with his winnings. He reaches farther and farther for more fruit, until he falls over the cliff.

FISH

ROGER DOLAN, fishing in Port-ago Lake, Ontario, catches a dore—wall-eyed-pike-perch, generally and incorrectly called Canadian pickerel.

Dolan kills the four-pound fish with a club, throws it in his canoe. Half hour later, on shore, he cleans the dore, tears its insides out. Two hours afterward, he happens to notice the "elephants"—and finds the heart beating normally and vigorously as it is in the fish. Life still was present.

No one can explain it. But this much is probable: If the dore had the human ability to worry, its heart would have stopped in the canoe or when the insides were torn out. Worry is a sure killer.

DEBT

THE national debt now is nearly two and a half billion dollars less than it was three years ago.

It was cut down $230,000,000 in September, lowering it to $22,812,497,731.

At this rate of reduction, the entire national debt would be wiped out by the year 1950. Don't expect it. Much of the reduction to date came from salvaging surplus war material. The junkman has finished the best of the picking.

FAILURES

MORE than 17,000 business firms failed in the first of the year and Oct. 1. It's a big figure, but at least 1,500,000 companies went thru the nine months without failing.

The liabilities of the failures exceeded their assets by about $200,000,000. Spread evenly over the whole population, this is less than $2 for each American.

Most of us looked at hard times thru a high-powered magnifying glass. The lone ship that perishes at sea gets the attention. No one notices the vast fleet that rides the gale safely.

FORD

HENRY FORD orders his foremen to speed up production and install new machinery so that the output of Fords will be 6000 a day by April 1, 1923.

Allowing for Sundays, Ford will be able to turn out nearly two million cars a year, the greatest industrial miracle of history.

Ford is always expecting better and better business. And he gets it—for many reasons, chief of which is that he never hypothesizes himself into stagnation by "anticipating" depression.

In the long run, we usually get what we expect, no more, no less.

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

GO AHEAD

(Shall I sing you a commonplace song?—From a poem.)
Yes, sing us a commonplace song
Of life as it ambles along,
A song that will carry
A jingling refrain
That Tom, Dick and Harry
And Mary and Jane
Can whistle and hum as they work
and they play,
From commonplace day into commonplace day,
A song for the plodding and hard-working throng,
Sing us a commonplace song!

Sing us a commonplace song,
A tune that is hard to get wrong,
Some sort of a ditty
With power to charm
The folks of the city
And those on the farm;
A commonplace ballad that somehow
how contrives
To bring some romance into commonplace lives,
To gladden the hearts of the weak
or the strong,
Sing us a commonplace song.

Yes, sing us a commonplace song,
Which just sort of ripples along,
With doggerel meter
And notes that are few,
But which make life sweeter
For me and for you—
A tinkly and lighthearted and lyrical lay
To chase all our worries and troubles away,
And if you can sing such a thing to the throng,
It won't be a commonplace song!

One purpose is to combat film on teeth—that viscous film you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. It absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. Then it forms cloudy coats. Tartar is based on film.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

No ordinary tooth paste effectively combats film. So, under

THE FLAMING JEWEL

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

It was Quintana and his band of international thieves who first stole the priceless gem, the Flaming Jewel from the ESTHONIA. For centuries the now beggared country has sought the gem and placed it to the disreputable and "evil" in the Adirondacks owned "hotel" in the name of Clinch. Under the name of MIKE CLINCH, Darragh works at the "evil" hotel, where he meets Clinch's stepdaughter, the beautiful EYE STRAYER, the one great influence for good in the career of Clinch. Quintana and his gang appeared in the vicinity, and both Clinch and Darragh knew they were at a stop at nothing to regain the lost jewel from the royal basket.

Go on With the Story EPISODE THREE On Star Peak CHAPTER I

Mike Clinch regarded the jewels taken from Jose Quintana as legitimate loot acquired in war.

He was prepared to kill anybody who attempted to take the gems from him.

At the very possibility, his ruling passion flared—his mania to make of Eye Strayer a grand lac.

But now, what he had feared for years had happened. Quintana had found him—Quintana, after all these years, had discovered the identity and dwelling place of the obscure American soldier who had robbed him in the washroom of a Paris cafe. And Quintana was now in America, here in this very wilderness, tracking the man who had despoiled him.

Clinch, in his shirt-sleeves, carrying a rifle, came out on the log veranda and sat down to think it over.

He began to realize that he was likely to have to trouble with a man as blood-bred and as dogged as himself.

Nor did he doubt that those with Quintana were desperate men.

On whom could he count? On nobody unless he paid their hire. None among the lawless men who haunted his backwoods "hotel" at Star Peak would lift a finger to help him. Almost any among them would rob him—murdered him, probably—if it were known that he was hidden in the house.

He could not trust Jake Klooni; he was as treacherous as only a born coward can be; and Honey, Harvey Chase, Bloomers, Byron Hastings—he knew them all too well to trust them—a sullen, unrepentant pack, partly cowardly, always treacherous as any creature.

But he suddenly, led only by their eyes, and sink through life just outside the frontiers of law.

And yet, out of this gang had come by him—Hal Smith—the man he himself had been about to slay.

Clinch got up from the bench where he had been sitting and walked down to the pond where Hal Smith sat cleaning trout.

"IT MEANS EVERYTHING TO US."

"Hal," he said, "I been figuring some. Quintana don't dare call in the constables. I can't afford to. Quintana and I've got to settle this on our own."

Smith slit open a ten-inch trout, stripped it, flung the entrails out into the pond, soused the fish in water, and threw it into a milk pan.

"Whose jewels were they in the beginning?" he inquired carelessly.

"How do I know?"

"If you ever found out—"

"I don't want to. I got them in the war, anyway. And it don't make no difference how I got 'em; Eve's going to be a lady if I go to the chair for it. So that's that."

Smith slit another trout, gutted it, flung away the viscera but laid back the roe.

"Shame to take them in October," he remarked, "but people must eat."

"Same's me," nodded Clinch; "I don't want to kill no one, but Eve she's gotta be a lady and ride in her own automobile with the proud."

"Does Eve know about the jewels?"

Clinch's pale eyes, which had been roving over the wooded shores of Star Pond, reverted to Smith.

"I'd cut my throat before I'd tell her," he said softly.

"She wouldn't stand for it?"

"Hal, when you said to me, 'Eve's a lady, by God,' you swattered the bull pie. That's the answer. A lady don't stand for what you and I don't bother about."

"Suppose she learns that you robbed somebody else of these jewels?"

Clinch's pale eyes were fixed on him: "Only you and me know," he said in his pleasant voice.

"Quintana knows. His gang knows."

Clinch's smile was terrifying. "I guess she ain't never likely to know nothing, Hal."

"What do you purpose to do, Mike?"

"Still hunt."

"For Quintana?"

"I might mistake him for a deer. Then accidents is likely, too."

"If Quintana catches you it will go hard with you, Mike."

"Sure, I know."

"He'll torture you to make you talk."

"You think I'd talk, Hal?"

Smith looked up into the light-colored eyes. The pupils were pin points. Then he went on cleaning fish.

"Hal?"

"What?"

"If they get me—but no matter; they ain't a-going to get me."

"Were you going to tell me where those jewels are hidden, Mike?" inquired the young man, still busy with his fish. He did not look around when he spoke. Clinch's murderous gaze was fastened on the back of his head.

"Don't go to gettin' too damn nosey, Hal," he said in his always agreeable voice.

Smith soused all the fish in water again; "You'd better tell somebody if you go gunning for Quintana."

"Did I ask for advice?"

"You do," not," said the young man smiling.

"All right. Mind your business."

Smith got up from the water's edge with his pan of trout:

"That's what I shall do, Mike," he said, laughing. "So go on with your private war; it's no button off my pants if Quintana gets you."

He went away toward the ice-house with the trout. Eye Strayer, doing chamber work, watched the young man from an upper room.

The girl's instinct was to like Smith—but that very instinct aroused her distrust. What was a man of his breeding and education doing at Clinch's dump? Why was he content to hang around and do chores? A man of his type who has got crooked enough to stick up a tourist in an automobile nourishes higher—though probably perverted—ambitions than a dollar a day and board.

She heard Clinch's light step on the uncarpeted stair; went on making up Smith's bed; and smiled as her stepfather came into the room, still carrying his rifle.

He had something else in his hand, too—a fat, thin packet wrapped in heavy paper and sealed all over with black wax.

"Girle," he said, "I want you should do a little errand for me this morning. If you're spry it won't take long—time to go there and get back to help with noon dinner."

"Very well, dad."

"Go get your pants on, girle."

"You want me to go into the woods?"

"I want you to go to the hole in the rocks under Star Peak and lay this packet in the hootch cache."

It was a sudden decision. He realized now that he couldn't keep the jewels in his house. War was on with Quintana. The "hotel" would be the goal for Quintana and his gang. And for Smith, too, if ever temptation overpowered him. The house was liable to an attempt at robbery any night, now—and day, perhaps. It was no place for the packet he had taken from Jose Quintana.

Eve came in wearing gray shirt, breeches, and puttees. Clinch gave her the packet.

"What's in it, dad?" she asked smilingly.

"Don't get nose, girle. Come here."

She went to him. He put his left arm around her.

"You like me some, don't you, girle?"

"You know it, dad."

"All right. You're all that matters to me. . . since your mother went and died. . . after a year or so. Well, I ain't cared none for nobody since—only you, girle."

He touched the packet with his forefinger:

"If I step out, that's yours. But I ain't a-going to step out. Put it with the hootch. You know how to move that keystone?"

"Yes, dad."

She nodded, tucked in the sheets, smoothed blanket and pillow with deft hands, went out to her own room. Clinch seated himself and turned a blank face to the window.

"And watch out that no game protector and none of that damn millionaire's wardens go you; the woods. No, nor none of these here fancy State Troops. You gotta watch out this time, Eve. It means everything to us—to you, girle—and to me. Go tip-toe. Lay low, coming and going. Take a rifle."

Eve ran to her bedroom and returned with her Winchester and belt.

"You shoot to kill," said Clinch grimly, "if anyone wants to stop you. But lay low and you won't need to shoot nobody, girle. G'wan out the back way; Hal's in the ice house."

TWELVE TOES COMES TO LIGHT FINGERS AID

By Olive Roberts Barton

"Here's a magic bean, like the one Jack the Giant Killer planted."

Light Fingers was the tricky little fairy who had stolen the Fairy Queen's automobile.

While rolling along the Milky Way he fell down to the earth. He got up and rubbed his head and tried to think what had happened.

"Oh, I know now!" he cried. "It's the Twins! The last thing I saw before I fell out of the sky was the Twins hopping into the automobile and driving off."

"First thing you know they'll be back at the Fairy Queen's Palace in Fairyland and then won't I catch it, tho!"

"I stole the automobile for Twelve Toes, the Sorcerer, who wanted it. Dreadfully, and now I've got to go and tell him that I lost it. Oh me, oh my! I bet he'll turn me into a worm or something, he'll be so mad."

Some More Truths.

WOULD you use a steam shovel to move a pebble? Certainly not. Implements are built according to the work they have to do.

Would you use a grown-up's remedy for your baby's ills? Certainly not. Remedies are prepared according to the work THEY have to do.

All this is preliminary to reminding you that Fletcher's Castoria was sought out, found and is prepared solely as a remedy for Infants and Children. And let this be a warning against Substitutes, Counterfeits and the Just-as-good stuff that may be all right for you in all your strength, but dangerous for the little babe.

All the mother-love that lies within your heart cries out to you: Be true to Baby. And being true to Baby you will keep in the house remedies specially prepared for babies as you would a baby's food, hairbrush, toothbrush or sponge.

Children Cry For

Fletcher's CASTORIA

Are You Prepared?

A doctor in the house all the time would be a good idea. Yet you can't afford to keep a doctor in the family to keep baby well or prevent sickness. But you can do almost the same thing by having at hand a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria, because it is a wonderful remedy for indigestion, colic, feverishness, fretfulness and all the other disorders that result from common ailments that babies have.

Fletcher's Castoria is perfectly safe to use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Children cry for Fletcher's Castoria, and mothers recommend it because they have found it a comfort to children and a mother's friend.

If you love your baby, you know how sweet it is to be able to help baby when trouble comes. You cannot always call upon a doctor. But doctors have nothing but good to say of Fletcher's Castoria, because they know that it can only do good—that it can't do any harm—and they wouldn't want you to use for baby a remedy that you would use for yourself.

Then Light Fingers had to tell him the whole thing, how he'd fallen out of the automobile and how Nancy and Nick had jumped in and turned the little knob on the whirling between the jigamacker and

"See, now I'll plant it. There, it's growing already. Soon it will reach the sky. Now you climb up and
